— THE STORY

Founded in 2021 and expanded with a podcast in 2023, Duff Radio has grown into a full multimedia operation: an original music catalog on every major streaming service, long-form interviews across four podcast seasons, music videos shot in-house, and editorial coverage of Kansas City's underground. Run end to end by writer, producer, and videographer Ty McDuffey — collaborators get a real platform, not just a post.

— WHAT WE OFFER
